

Mapping & Designing Contemporary Law Curriculum: Sharing Practice
Law AD Network Meeting
Monash University Law Chambers (555 Lonsdale St Melbourne)
Thursday 6 December 2012
9am-5pm

- 9:00 Opening
- Welcome
 - General business
 - Upcoming events
 - LSSSE survey
 - Convenors and structure of the network
 - Present networking opportunities
 - Additional networking opportunities
 - Relationship with CALD
 - Report on the OLT grant for the network
 - Website
 - Funding travel to meetings
 - Secretariat assistance
 - Proposal for additional meeting in Melbourne in February
 - Overview of the purpose of the day
- 10:00 Marguerite de Sousa, Director, Awards and Networks,
Office of Teaching and Learning
- Update on the OLT
 - Update on the OLT networks project
- 10:30 Morning Tea
- 11:00 Practice Sharing – Embedding TEQSA and AQF
- What processes has your school/faculty undertaken to prepare for TEQSA?
 - What issues (if any) is your school/faculty experiencing with the AQF, and how are you addressing these issues?
- 12:30 Lunch
- 1:30 Practice Sharing – Curriculum Highlights – TLOs
- To what extent has your school/faculty engaged with the TLOs; and how are these represented within your curriculum?
 - Do you have a particular aspect of your curriculum design of which you are especially proud, and which you are willing to share?
- 3:00 Afternoon Tea

- 3:30 Practice Sharing – Problem-Solving Curriculum
- Do you have a particular challenge or problem with your curriculum design?
- 4:30 Wrap up
- Overview of findings from the day
 - Value in advancing a coordinated shared practice approach to an overview of law curricula nationally
 - Next meeting
 - February in Melbourne – Wellness? (earlier resolution)
 - July at ALTA, ANU – hot topic to be identified
- 5:00 Close